

HAVE YOU HEARD FROM JOHANNESBURG: OLIVER TAMBO

A FILM AND CONVERSATION

DETAILS:

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2020

CAMPUS CENTER BUILDING--
UMASS BOSTON
100 Morrissey Blvd.
Boston, MA 02125

Doors open at 6:00p
6:30p Film Starts
8:00p Conversation
8:30p Reception

AN EVENT IN PARTNERSHIP WITH UMASS BOSTON AND SHARED INTEREST

Come and watch this new entry into the Emmy Award-winning series Have You Heard From Johannesburg tells the untold story of Oliver Tambo—who lived a life on the principles of ethics, compassion, inclusion, social justice and equality—the man behind the release of Nelson Mandela and the end of apartheid in South Africa.

BECOME A SPONSOR

Become an esteemed sponsor and support our programs in Africa.

BENIN LEVEL $500: includes logo or name (s) on all signage for the event and 2 guests for the film screening and reception

SENEGAL LEVEL $1,500: includes logo or name (s) on all signage for the event, 5 guests for the film screening and reception

JOHANNESBURG LEVEL $3,000: includes logo or name (s) on all signage for the event, 10 guests for the film screening and reception, and 10 parking passes

CLICK HERE TO SECURE YOUR SPACE

For more information about the event, or to become a sponsor visit www.sharedinterest.org/bostonfilm or email shukura@sharedinterest.org.

